20TH BIRTHDAY FRENZY!!!

WILD TURKEY'S 20TH
BIRTHDAY SPECIAL EDITION
MULESKINNER NEWS!

20 YEARS ROCKIN' AND WRECKIN' YEHAH!

On the 20th of August 1988, Melbourne Rockabilly and Psychobilly outfit Wild Turkey performed their first gig under that name! The band had been using "The Deviates" as their name prior to that.

Originally a four piece line up, with John Marsden as the lead singer and guitarist, Matt Walker as lead guitarist, Matt Ralph - bass and Chris Latham on drums. Wild Turkey had several drummer changes in the first 18 months, until Kirk Syrett joined the band. Phil Smith became our bassist about twelve months later.

Our debut CD "I Drove all Day" (distributed by MDS) was released in 1993. We recorded the CD at the David Briggs Production Workshop and David has recorded and produced with us all our studio recordings ever since!

The debut CD launch was at The Punters Club and we had The Living End in their early days and Chiaroscuro (Andrew Wilkie's band - he also played bass for us at one stage! RIP) as special guest acts. What a gig! We even played live at Brashes in the city and were the loudest band to have played there at the time - they booked us thinking we were "Unplugged"! (quote of the manager "oh my God, we thought The Sharp were loud last week but you are way wilder" Ha Ha Ha)

Work started on our debut album and shortly after the first sessions Matt Walker left the group to pursue his solo career and we became a trio!

In the time recording "Love That Kills" we had Phil Smith leave the band. Paul Mileham played bass for a year then also left (1996). John had a brief brush with cancer and had an operation and chemotherapy and just as all this was happening, we met Guy Lawson who joined the band and has been our rock solid double bass player ever since!

"Love That Kills" (distributed by Newmarket Music) was finally launched at The Esplanade Hotel St Kilda in 1997 with special guests The Exotics and Oozin Blues.

The CD received a lot of independent airplay and also had many tracks from it featured in the TV Shows "Good Guys Bad Guys" and "Stingers" (John also worked on Stingers in every episode from series 4 until it ended as an "undercover" extra and also had small parts including getting shot!)

It was through John and Kirk working in the film industry that we made the contacts to get our songs in the soundtracks.

We were gigging regularly at great pubs such as the Espy, St Andrews and The Flinders Hotel - one gig we even had the entire dance floor collapse into a disused cellar full of rancid water during our last song! We played on until someone realized the power leads were in the drink!

We decided to record a "live" album at The Espy where Rob Stead had a great set up for recording shows there.

"Surfin Hearse" (distributed by Newmarket Music) was recorded in two nights and was released in 2001.

The launch was at The Espy with special guests The Satellites and The Mess Hall.

At this point work on the next album had begun and we had built up a regular tour circuit with annual tours of Tasmania and some top music festivals such as Great Southern Blues and Rockabilly Festival - Narooma NSW and The Australian Blues Music Festival - Goulburn NSW. We were also a regular fixture at the International 500cc Motor Cycle Grand Prix at Phillip Island which we have played at every year since 1996.

We are regular performers in the Hotrod and Custom Car scene - performed at the

All American Car Display in Gembrook for over ten years until 2006 and we have performed at the two biggest events for the Rockabilly Hotrod Kustom Kulture scene in the Southern hemisphere – Kustom Nationals at Phillip Island and at The Rod and Kustom Picnic each year since 2000. Johnny's hearse has been in several magazines in photos from these shows!

“Devil Ridin’ Shotgun” (distributed by MGM) was released in 2005 and the huge launch night was at The Corner Hotel with special guests The Exotics, Speedemons and The Flyin’ Saucers.

All of ours CD's are receiving airplay on radio in USA and Europe on roots music and rockabilly shows.

In 2006 we hit the United States for our first tour and played at many venues and some cool Rockabilly and Hotrod Kulture events including Bo Huff's car show in Utah and The Rattlers car show in Phoenix Arizona.

We returned in 2007 and played at Bo's show again – drove Johnny's 56 Caddy from Colorado deep into Utah through the desert of Monument Valley and had a wild trip. We also got to see Hank 111 (Hank Williams Grandson) perform in Albuquerque and met him and his band (and drank Tequila with the band – see our myspace page for that story!) and even performed at The Double Down Saloon in Las Vegas – a wild punk rock bar!

In 2008 we have been playing some great shows at The Retreat Hotel in Brunswick which is a rockin' pub indeed!

We also have a song featured on the “It's

A Gas” Aussie Rockabilly CD just released!

At the moment we have been playing not quite as regularly as usual due to Johnny having a polyp on one of his vocal chords. It is not uncommon amongst professional singers to develop these.

I am still able to sing but have not been gigging too much to rest my voice a bit. Don't worry folks! I am on the waiting list for an operation and from research I have done it appears that many singers have improved their vocals after such treatment! It has been a very frustrating period though, as singing is one of the most important things in my life and also my professional job.

Wild Turkey thank our loyal hard working stage manager Rocky for many years of service!
