Frenzied crowd, crazed dancefloor!

DE LA VILLE HOTEL, Geelong, 4th October: A wild Tequila swilling Rock 'n Roll extravaganza was had by all! Yahoo!

THE ROBBIE BURNS HOTEL, Wyndham NSW, 5th October: The crazed Ambo load of Madmen rolled over the border and headed up into the hills from Eden for a wild night indeed! The dance floor fired up from the first note and everyone was having a ball! It was a fantastic gig and after many drinks we rolled out our swags in front of the fire! After a hearty breakfast of Bloody Marys, Bacon and Wild Turkey we loaded Kirk into the Ambo and took a scenic short cut up some back roads to Cooma, then Canberra and on to...

CLUB 77, Sydney, 6th October: We arrived just as the previous band announced "Wild Turkey are on next", loaded straight on to the stage and ripped out a rockin' set to the packed venue. It was a wild gig! The last act for the night was our rockin' buddies FEZ PEREZ who tore out a rip snorter set! We cruised Kings Cross in search of a 24 hour bottle shop – the feral Ambo with trailer in tow created a stir! We hit the road and drove until dawn before kipping at a friends house! Gynchy! What a weekend!!

MICAWBER TAVERN, Belgrave, 11th October: A wild night indeed with crazy solos, wild punters and much fun!! Yahoo!!

wild people, sold lots of CD's and played two frantic sets! High Octane Rockabilly!!!

TASSIE TOUR: Johnny ripped the hand brake off the Hearse getting on the boat! We hit the bars and had a buccaneering trip! After quick repairs to the Hearse our crazed convoy was on the road to . . .

LIVE TO AIR ABC RADIO: We performed in the Launceston studio on Tim Cox's Breakfast Show via a link up with the Hobart studio! It was a great interview and performance! On the journey south the Ambo ran out of gas so Super Hearse had to tow it 60 kilometres back to a servo with gas!!

SHOW EVE SHINDIG, Polish Club, Hobart, 23rd October: Tassie rockabilly band SNAPBACK kicked off the show with a great set then THE REVTONES blasted out some wild garage tunes and instrumentals! We then ripped out a wild set to the frenzied crowd and the dance floor was crazed! Thank you to DAVID HUGHES, ULTRA-LUX and everyone involved in organising this fantastic show!

NEW SYDNEY HOTEL, Hobart, 24th October: It was a great gig with the audience enjoying every minute! We had spent some time drinking in the bar and met some nice folks! It was a great gig – Thank you GARY for the accommodation and mayhem!

THE REPUBLIC BAR, Hobart, 25th October: During the day Johnny fixed the hand brake on the Hearse – Thank you BRENT for the welding and LEROY for organising it! The pub was packed and very wild with dancing and mayhem galore! We had DAVID from SNAPBACK make a guest appearance whilst celebrating his birthday singing wild versions of "Honey Hush" and "Drinkin' Wine"! It was a frenzied night indeed!

SPORTSMANS HALL HOTEL, Launceston, 26th October, arvo: On arrival Johnny asked for a tomato juice for "Breaky" and upon the answer "How about a Bloody Mary!" we knew it was gonna be fun! This pub has a great bar, beautiful beer and the publican THANE is a Muso! Yahoo! Johnny was briefly kidnapped by CHRIS from Foggy Mountain Music to see his shop of great Blues and Roots music which is across the road from the pub! It was a great gig with many new fans hearing us for the first time! Afterwards we had a fine meal (all the hotel meals we had in Tassie were excellent!) then departed to the next show . . .

PARTY AT THE GRANNARY near Sheffield: The party was starting to rock when we arrived and loaded our gear up the suicide stairs into the loft of the house where there is a huge disco light
